THIRTY-SEVENTH YEAR

BEER, WINE
WIN PLACE
ON BALLOT

Orders Submission of Issue
to Ohio Voters

PEAL OF CASE EXPECTED

League May Carry it to Highest Tribunal

(COLUMBUS — (Associated Press) — By a vote of five to three the Ohio supreme court today ordered Secretary of State
C. Smith to place the beer and light wine constitutional amendment on the ballot
at the November election.
The order was issued on a petition filed by the Prohibition League, which has sought that it will carry the amendment to the United States supreme court.

The dissenting opinion in the case was reported to have been written by Chief Justice Hall and Judge Benson. It held that the amendment
violated the state constitution and that the state supreme court has no authority to order its removal to the federal court.

Under the court's order the people of Ohio will vote on November 5 whether they wish beer
and wine sold in Ohio again.
The amendment, however, will not be available to Ohioans, because of the vote, because the state has which takes precedence over state laws.

IN making its decision, the supreme court asserted "it has become the established law of this state that no officer or tribunal may interfere with the enactments of the legislature or the amendment of the constitution, while the same is in effect."

The amendment was ruled off
the ballot recently by Secretary of State Smith on the grounds that it violated the state constitution and that the state supreme court has no authority to order its removal
to the federal court.

The decision of the supreme court in deciding to put the beer
and wine amendment on the ballot
will give the brewers a new opportunity to undertake to get the amendment off the ballot.

Ohio what the federal law
means, said a statement issued by A. White, Ohio superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League,
after hearing of the decision.

It will also have the effect of bringing down law enforcement in the state, upon the loyal citizens of the state, men and women, who repel at the polls this attempt at nullification of the supreme of the land."

THE OVERTURE
The Ohio court's action today
in overruling a demurrer
to the state to the request of Prohibition Opposed to Prohibition writ of mandamus, commanding the secretary of state to place the amendment on the ballot.

Prohibition is not a new one,
the constitution declared. Three times the question has been submitted to the people, and in each case the amendment was rejected.

These questions, state or federal, are reserved for consideration and determination after the people have fully performed its duty and such new law or constitutional amendment shall have been adopted. The demurrer is overruled and the writ allowed."

March Toward Dardanelles and Constantinople, In Defiance Of the Allies Is Begun by Kemal's Army—Great Britain Plans Lone Hand Fight

France and Italy Decide to Withdraw Troops From Asia Minor—Paris Cabinet Goes on Record Against Any Military Action

CONSTANTINOPLE — (United Press—Mustapha Kemal's march toward the Dardanelles and Constantinople is reported to have started.

The Turkish commander, according to these reports, is moving troops from Smyrna toward the Bosphorus (which lies between Constantinople and the Asia mainland) and the Dardanelles where the British are entrenched.

LONDON — (United Press) — The British government is determined to go thru with its program of defending the Dardanelles neutral zone against the Turks and is not "bluffing" when it says every resource of the empire will be pitted against the Kemalists.

This was made plain today in a communique issued from Downing-street, during the meeting of the cabinet, while word was coming in that France and Italy won't fight.

Meeting in the press that the government is merely "rattling the sabre" today's communique announced that Saturday's statement of policy—in which the denials were called on to help defend the neutral zone—is actually official, representing the cabinet's views and designed to leave the empire in no doubt as to the government's aims.

TURK OFFENSIVE PLANS
ATHENS.—(United Press)—Mustapha Kemal, aided by "Divine will" hopes to take Adrianople within a fortnight, according to refugees arriving here from stricken Smyrna today.

Adrianople is in Europe, north-west of Constantinople.

During a banquet where he was toasted for his Smyrna victory, Kemal responded:

"By Divine will, I'm able to respond to the toast.

"I hope within a fortnight, to have the privilege to respond to a similar toast at Adrianople and even further afield."

BRITAIN TO FIGHT
LONDON.—(Associated Press)—The British cabinet takes the attitude that Great Britain will undertake military action alone if necessary, independent of France and Italy, to protect the freedom of the Dardanelles, it was authoritatively stated after this forenoon's protracted cabinet meeting.

An official communique issued from Downing-street, this afternoon declares in substance that the government stands by its pronouncement of policy issued to the press Saturday, notwithstanding newspaper reports to the contrary.

FRENCH TO QUIT
PARIS.—(Associated Press)—The French cabinet today unanimously approved what is characterized as the "pacifist" policy of Premier Poincaré in the Near East and the withdrawal of all the French troops from Asia Minor to the French side of the straits of the Dardanelles.

The cabinet went firmly on record as being opposed to any form of military action as a means of settlement in the Turkish-Greek situation. It emphasized the necessity of reaching an agreement thru diplomatic channels and eventually by a peace conference.

ITALY TO WITHDRAW
ROME.—(United Press)—The Italian government has decided to withdraw its Near East troops from the neutral zone of Constantinople, the newspaper Messaggero stated today.

MANY MINES FACE FIRE HAZARDS

Safety Codes Prescribed by Law Declared Inadequate

JACKSON, Calif. — (Associated Press) — A telegram from H. Foster, director of the United States Bureau of Mines, to Byron C. Pickard, head of the bureau in this district, commenting on the lessons to be learned from the Argonaut disaster, was made public here by Mr. Pickard.

"The safety codes now prescribed by law are inadequate in not requiring deep metal mines that should be hoisting equipment in more than one exit. Mechanical and proper splitting of air currents and provisions for their reversal in emergencies.

"As a result many metal mines in America are working with fully as great fire hazards as at the Argonaut."

"No cost, however, which will permit the financing and operation of necessary mines is too great if it affords real protection to life and property."

Mr. Barn added "that after each has done everything possible there will remain an unescapable life and property loss in mining as in other industries, but until we do all that is possible we may not save our consciences."

ELIMINATE CURB
Agreement to the elimination of a curb on the portion of the Dixie Highway thru Deaverdam has been reached at a conference at Columbus between state highway department heads and Joe C. Hartline, representing the Allen-Cox road road board. The village council wanted to widen the paving, inside the town from 18 to 24 feet. A supplementary contract will be let for brick to replace the curb space.

Losing Battle Against Death Is Bared When Miners Are Found

MUTE EVIDENCE IN ARGONAUT PIT

Toll Demanded of Gold Seekers Paid in 47 Lives

JACKSON, Calif. — (Associated Press) — Jackson, mining town in the Mother Lode country, has paid the toll demanded of those who delve in the earth for gold and stands unafraid but not dry-eyed today.

Forty-seven of her men died in the Argonaut mine early on the morning of August 28, she learned last night and today she awaits the bringing of their bodies from the rock tunnel that has been their tomb for three weeks.

It was California's worst mine disaster, in one of California's greatest gold producers, and it was the hardest blow Jackson ever has had to suffer.

Three weeks ago last Sunday night men deep in the Argonaut believed they smelled smoke. A shift boss took two men and went to investigate. They found the shaft afire at the 3,600 foot level. Then began the work of fire fighting which merged into one of rescue, for the fire closed the shaft and prevented the escape of the miners. Men came from all over the west to offer their services. The Kennedy Mining Company, operators of an adjoining shaft, sunk the bitterness of a lawsuit in its willingness to be of service and joined all its property and facilities to the work of rescue.

DRILL DRIVEN THRU
For many weary days rescue crews drove thru the choked tunnel that scrawled by William F. Fessell, said:

"Three o'clock. Gas coming in strong. Gas too strong. We will have to go."

An effort had been made to scrawl a third but the figure "4" rudely scribbled, was all the man had been able to accomplish before death numbed his fingers.

IDENTIFICATION DIFFICULT
Identification will be difficult. The length of time since they died, the temperature of their casual tomb, the lack of the clothing they had torn off to stuff into cracks in their first bulkhead, combined to remove from most of the bodies any distinguishing characteristics.

The Red Cross has received a fund of $8,000 for the miners' dependents and it is estimated that the California state compensation insurance fund will pay an average of approximately $4,200 to dependents.

Red Cross officials said $10,000 was provided by the Argonaut for temporary relief.

A revision in California mining safety laws will be urged in the next legislature, according to Fletcher Hamilton, state mineralogist. He said he thought it would be feasible to have independent exits and to have underground safety stations with a separate source of supply of air and supplies of food and water.

TARIFF FIGHT TO END TODAY

Senate Votes on Conference Report at 4 P. M.

WASHINGTON. — (Associated Press) — The longest and bitterest tariff fight in the history of the American Congress was to end at 4 p. m. today under a unanimous consent agreement for a vote by the senate at that hour on the adoption of the conference report of the administration bill.

Favorable action was regarded as a foregone conclusion as was the approval of the measure by President Harding.

While their fight in congress against the bill was ended, the Democrats expected to carry it to the country during the campaign preceding the elections in November.

The tariff, the first Republican protective measure in nearly ten years, has been twenty months and more in the making.

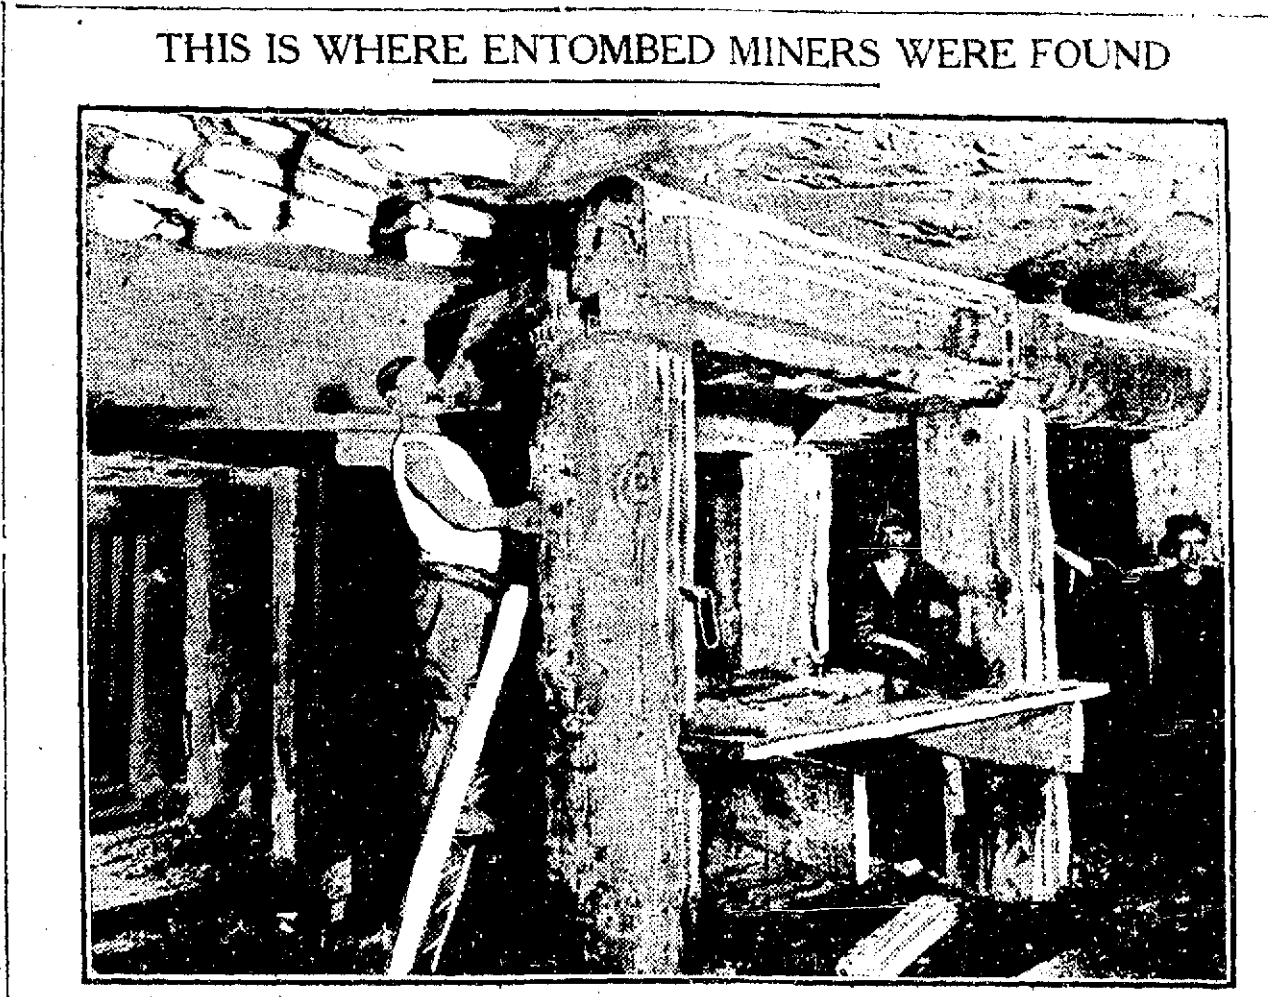

For the first time in American tariff making the senate considered the bill item by item which prolonged debate on some of the separate rates, retrofitted the practice, has been to discuss entire schedules or only the high spots in each schedule.

FORMER KAISER WILL MARRY IN NOVEMBER

POTSDAM.—After a family council of the house of Hohenzollern, held here, it was officially announced that former Emperor William is to marry the widowed Princess Hermine von Schönaich-Carolath, who was born Princess Reuss of the elder line.

The announcement which stated that the marriage probably would take place in November of this year, was made by Friedrich von Bork, chief of the civil cabinet, Hereditary Prince of the former Kaiser's sons and the former crown princess, and of whom except ex-Crown Prince Friedrich Wilhelm, attended the council.

Two notes were found. One,

Above is shown the 3900-foot level of the Argonaut gold mine in California where rescue workers found the dead bodies of 47 miners, entombed three weeks. The picture was taken in the mine prior to the fire which resulted in the disaster.

BONUS BILL IS VETOED BY HARDING

WASHINGTON — (United Press) — President Harding today completed a long message to congress, vetoing the $4,000,000,000 soldier bonus bill. The message was to be sent to the capitol late today.

Mr. Harding's message was about 2,500 words long, it was learned, and was described by senators who called at the White House today as "vigorous."

GOVERNORS TO BE INITIATED

Among Candidates for 33rd Degree Masonry Tonight

CLEVELAND. — (Associated Press) — Today was the most important of the six day convalescence of the supreme council, thirty-third degree, Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite of Free Mason, to the northern Masonic jurisdiction of the United States, for it is tonight that the thirty-third degree, the highest honor that can be attained in Masonry, will be conferred upon approximately 142 candidates.

Among the candidates are Governors A. J. Groesbeck of Michigan and C. S. Sproul of Pennsylvania, and former Governor Charles S. Deneen of Illinois.

President Harding also was to have had this honor conferred upon him but owing to the illness of his wife, was unable to attend.

However, it is said, the degree probably will be conferred upon Mr. Harding at an extraordinary convocation to be called in the near future.

The number of thirty-third degrees allotted to each consistory will be decreased hereafter, it was announced. Herebefore each consistory has been permitted to assign one thirty-third candidate for each 100 members initiated into the fourteenth degree. This number was decreased to 250.

MORE ROADS SIGN AGREEMENTS

New York Central May Fall in Line Today

CHICAGO — (Associated Press) — Adjustment of misunderstandings and differences which delayed expected settlement of the railway shopmen's strike on some of the roads favorable to the Baltimore plan arrangement was apparent today.

There were rising hopes that Bert M. Jewell, the shop crafts leader, would iron out with officials of the New York Central lines differences which prevented an agreement between striking shopmen and the roads which form the New York Central system.

These hopes were strengthened when the Southern railway, the Mobile and Ohio, controlled by the Southern, and the Monon, fell in line with roads accepting the Baltimore plan and signed the agreement.

Reports of a general return to work by striking shopmen on roads which agreed to the Baltimore plan brought predictions by union leaders that the estimated number of 50,000 returned strikers on various roads would be doubled within a few days.

Shop forces generally were estimated in railroad circles today at about 85 per cent of normal. New shop unions were formed on some of these roads.

SHORT SHAVINGS

Miss Hortense Ross, chamber of commerce clerk, has a girl acquaintance who she thinks is a champion optimist.

"She was dressing hurriedly to get ready for a party when she mistook a bottle of tooth powder for white shoe powder," reports Miss Ross.

"It ruined the shoes. But she didn't seem to mind.

"Just think," she said, "how much worse it would have been if I had mistaken a bottle of shoe powder for tooth powder!"

Frank J. Callahan of the Buckeye Pipe Line and two acquaintances went on an auto tour to New York.

The trip was most enjoyable except that frequent signs "Road being repaired, detour," annoyed them considerably.

They returned to Lima and were driving to their homes.

As they crossed the High-Main intersection one of the party said, "Thank goodness, we're thru with detours."

"Then we reached W. High-st. and there was a sign, 'Street being repaired, detour,'" says Callahan.

Fred Calvert, Elk's chorus leader, was puzzled when a young woman asked him to sing "I Don't Care for Flowers."

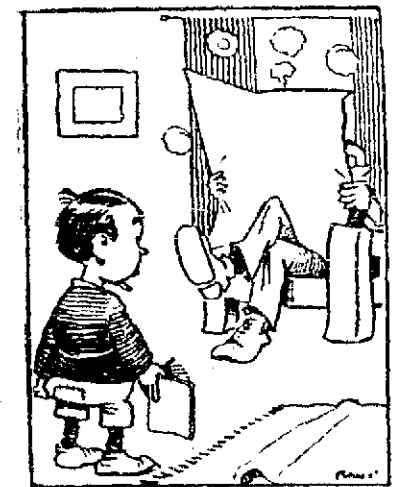

"There isn't any such piece," Calvert told her.

She insisted that there was.

Finally an idea occurred to Calvert and he asked her to hum it.

"What she wanted me to play was 'Don't Bring Me Posies,'" says Calvert.

Ohio Wesleyan Prominent in Many Lines of Endeavor

Ohio Wesleyan Alumni have not only distinguished themselves in Education, Religion, and Politics, but they have an enviable record of accomplishments in the fields of Business, Law, Journalism, Medicine and other professions.

Even an incomplete analysis of Wesleyan Alumni indicates 1,485 successfully engaged in business enterprises such as Manufacturing, Banking, Engineering and Construction; 721 in Medicine, and 209 in Agriculture. Space will not permit an enumeration of the hundreds who have reached the top of the ladder in these several fields of endeavor.

In addition to the 404 alumni engaged in the practice of Law, Ohio Wesleyan has supplied her own state with two Attorney-Generals and a Chief Justice; the United States with a Judge of the Supreme Court of Appeals; Idaho with a Chief Justice of Supreme Court; Colorado and Indiana with Judges of the Supreme Court.

DANGEROUS DIVE IS THREATENED

Excavation at Court House Imperils Civil War Relic

PLAN TO ANCHOR CANNON

Huge Cables May be Tied to Two Ton Gun

Actuated by fear that the court house cannon may tumble into the new comfort station, county commissioners Tuesday, made preparations to anchor the ancient field piece to the building, as a precautionary measure.

The cannon is precariously perched in the angle formed by the excavation for the station. It weighs approximately two tons, and ground on which it stands is commencing to crumble.

Potts Brothers, contractors who are building the station, say it is nothing to them what becomes of the big gun. It is their business to build the station, and not to fool around with a cannon. That's up to the county, they say.

At the time that excavation work was commenced, it was stated that it would not be necessary to move the cannon and flag pole.

ARCHITECT EXPLAINS

Commissioners say they were so advised by Frank M. Leach, architect who drew the plans. Leach, however, in explanation says he was under the impression that excavation would be done with a steam shovel and finished in a few days.

Instead hand work has been employed, and there is still considerable digging to do.

Commissioners investigated Tuesday and found the ground beneath the gun was cracking under the weight. The soil is clay and is div and hard. Commissioners are of the opinion that as long as this condition prevails the gun will be safe.

But should heavy rains set in the bank is bound to be weakened. The cannon which is no toy, is mounted on a stone base, which in turn rests on a concrete foundation. It has stood on the court house corner for 20 years. It is located on the very edge of the excavation.

Commissioners propose to attach cables to the cannon, and anchor them either to the building or in some other manner.

CHECK PROBLEM TO BE DISCUSSED BY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE COMMITTEE

Copies of the National Chamber of Commerce referendum relating to the collection of checks by the banks at par, have been distributed among the members of the committee from the Lima chamber of commerce.

C. M. Tolan, chairman of the committee, has called a meeting for Monday at 2:30 p. m. to discuss the action which should be taken by the Lima chamber.

Possibility that national legislation will be necessary to eliminate the practice of charging for the collection of checks has brought about the national referendum.

A report will be made by the committee at the regular meeting of the board of directors September 22, and the directors will cast the three votes allotted to the local organization.

Practically all banks in the United States are remitting at par but the few which do not are seriously interfering with the free movement of bank funds, it is claimed.

CLOTHING NEEDED FOR CHILDREN

Welfare Association Anticipates Heavy Winter Demand

Winter will find the Allen-co Child Welfare association store-room unprovided with articles of clothing to care for the children who are under care of the organization unless people come forward with donations.

Miss Eunice Trumbo, director of the boarding home division, said Tuesday a flood of applications to place children makes it necessary to gather all clothing possible, principally black materials and handkerchiefs. Second-hand suitcases also are needed, she says.

A total of 30 children are now located in Allen-co homes, all except two from Springfield being residents of the county. Their maintenance is a serious problem even in cases where parents or other relatives provide half the board, because of lack of funds in the association, according to Miss Trumbo.

More applications than usual are anticipated for this winter and if industrial conditions are adverse and the season is severe the association will receive more than it is able to handle, Miss Trumbo said.

Maintenance of these children costs the organization in a number of cases $1 per week, causing a constant drain on the treasury which will soon cause its total depletion.

The storeroom is maintained by the association at its headquarters at Memorial Hall. Everything is sorted and renovated before being distributed.

GUARDIAN NAMED

R. W. McClure, Lafayette, was appointed guardian of Alberta and Leah Daa Shuler, minor heirs of Mrs. Minnie Shuler, Lafayette, by Probate Judge J. H. Hamilton Tuesday. The value of property inherited is fixed at $468.54.

CHILDREN BENEFIT

Children of the late Mrs. Viola E. Gates, will obtain equal shares of her estate under terms of her will filed in probate court. The document names W. F. Gates, Independence, Kansas, and Mrs. Nellie A. Scott, Lima, for one-fourth in terests. Legacies of one-eighth will accrue to Walter Scott, L. G. Stanley and Cora M. Gates.

HEALTH EXAMINATIONS FOR COUNTY SCHOOL CHILDREN ARE SCHEDULED BY NURSE

Every child in the Allen-co system of schools will undergo an examination by Miss C. Clotie B. health nurse of the Child Welfare association, to determine fitness for study and provide information on which parents may provide remedies.

Miss Bassitt is now working in Amanda-up, visiting the Carey school Tuesday. Her initial visit disclosed that many pupils need immediate eye, ear and nose treatment.

On Wednesday she will visit the Center school. The remainder of the Amanda-up schedule this week follows: Pigeon school; Thursday; Mud College and Honey Run, Friday.

Beginning Monday, Miss Bassitt will complete Amanda-up, as follows: Byrd school, Monday; Rice, Tuesday; Amanda Special, Wednesday.

The schedule for Marion-up will begin September 23 at Landeck. Other dates are: Bockey and Baxter schools, September 29; Pequot, October 2; West Camelback, October 3; East Camelback, October 4; Long, October 5; Bliss, October 6; Mud College, October 9; Scott's Crossing, October 10; Disaver, October 11; Hunsaker, October 12 and Leatherton, October 13.

October dates for Anglin-up are: West Minister, 16 and 17; Billtown, 18; West Newton, 19; Anglin, 20 and Blair, 23.

FRANCIS' FUNERAL SERVICES AWAITING ARRIVAL OF SON

Complete funeral arrangements for Owen Francis, president of the Citizens Loan and Building Co., who died Monday, await the arrival of his son, Hugh L. Francis, from St. Louis.

The services will be held at the residence probably Thursday morning. Interment will be at Ft. Wayne where his wife is buried and where his daughter, Mrs. W. O. McBride, resides.

The Citizens Loan and Building Co. will be closed during the funeral services in honor of their former president.

KILLED IN CRASH

Lima Man Dies After Car Hits Wagon

Daniel Vorhees, 50, Wayne and Jackson-st., was fatally injured late Monday when a northbound W. O. Interurban crashed into a spring wagon he was driving to Wapakoneta. The accident occurred three miles from Cridersville. Vorhees died half an hour after the crash.

Henry Robinson, 36, Wapakoneta, riding with Vorhees, suffered painful injuries. Physicians declared his condition to be improving, Tuesday.

The two men were on their way to Robinson's home in Wapakoneta when the accident occurred. Vorhees, earlier in the day, had been arraigned in police court in Lima on a charge of gambling. He had pleaded not guilty and had been released on $50 bond.

His body was returned to Lima. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Eva Hibold, 213 N. Jackson-st., and Lucille, at home, and three sons, Daniel, Willis and Francis, all of Lima.

NEW U. S. COURT HERE WILL MAKE MANY JOBS

Numerous positions will be created by the enactment of legislation in Washington designating Lima as the location for one of the 25 new federal courts to be established over the nation.

Word that a bill establishing one of the courts in Lima, has passed the house was received here by W. L. Mackenzie. The bill was introduced into the house by Congressman John L. Cable, some weeks ago. Its final approval is predicted.

In addition to a federal judge, the business of the court will require that appointment of at least one Deputy U. S. Marshal, clerks, bailiffs and other attaches.

DEFIANCE LINE TO BE PROBED

Schedule of Operating Costs Sent to Utilities Commission

A complete schedule of the operating costs and revenues of the Defiance branch of the Indiana, Columbus and Eastern railway will be filed with the state public utilities commission Wednesday.

This announcement was made by Harvey McClure in a telephone conversation with the Lima Chamber of Commerce Tuesday. He did not indicate what the report would show, however.

Under the order of the utilities commission ordering the Defiance line to continue operation it was provided that a schedule of costs and revenues up until August 31 should be filed.

It had been planned to hold a meeting in the chamber of commerce auditorium Friday afternoon at which the representatives of the towns along the line could meet with the officials of the interurban company.

A meeting at Toledo will make it impossible for the receiver and the manager of the line to be present at the meeting and it has been postponed until later in the month.

Division of all possible freight to the Defiance line will be urged at the meeting when it is held, it is understood, in order that the property may be operated at a profit.

ORDERED OUT OF CITY

Henry Baker, 35, giving his address as West Virginia, and Jos. L. Wallace, 42, Kansas City, both charged with drunkenness, were ordered out of the city, Tuesday, by Judge Jackson, after they were arraigned before him in criminal court.

TECHNICITY GIVES MAN HELD FOR DRY VIOLATION, FREEDOM ON COURT WRIT

Because no commitment papers had been issued authorizing Sheriff C. W. Baxter to place Pete Oper, steel worker, 1309 Norval-av., behind the bars, he obtained his release in appeals court Monday afternoon.

Oper was out on bond pending the final decision on a liquor charge on which he was convicted and fined $1,000, on April 16, by Justice E. M. Boukin.

Sheriff C. W. Baxter, recently picked him up, because it was discovered his bondsman, John Barzo, and Steve Adams, could not pay in case he defaulted.

Monday, James K. Rokey, attorney for Oper, was successful in obtaining a writ of habeas corpus in appeals court, and effected his release.

Final disposition of Oper's case is to be made by appeals court, which has granted his counsel permission to file a writ of error.

MACDONELL IS ELECTED HEAD OF NORTH ELECTRIC MANUFACTURING COMPANY

Alexander D. Macdonnell, 636 W. Mickett-st., has been elected vice-president and general manager of the North Electric Manufacturing Co., Gallon, it was announced Tuesday.

Macdonnell is a director in the Lima Telephone Co., and also in the North Electric company of which he will be active head. He has been interested in oil and other commercial activities of the city.

Auto manual switchboards, such as are used in the Lima telephone exchange and numerous other exchanges thruout the country are manufactured by the Gallon concern.

Macdonnell is in Gallon at the present time taking over the duties of his office. No announcement has been made as to whether or not he will remove to that city.

CRACKER COMPANY LOCATE DISTRIBUTING POINT HERE

Announcement has been made that the Green & Green Co., Dayton bakers and distributors of crack and similar goods have leased a building on Pearl-st., formerly occupied by the Kellogg Sugar Products Co.

This property is well situated and will be very suitable as a center of distribution of the company's products in this section of the state, it is believed. It is owned by the State Oil Co.

Officials of the company are expected in the city within a few days and will make a full announcement of the plans of the company regarding the future.

OFFICERS ELECTED

Miss Vivian Skiles was elected president of the T. N. T. club of industrial department of the C. A. at a meeting, Monday evening. Other officers are Miss Bernice F. vice-president; Miss Winona M. ray, secretary and Miss Grace M. tier, treasurer.

CORN ROOT ROT! HITS FARMS

Prospects for Fertile Seed Are Very Poor

FARMERS MUST USE CARE

It is Best Place to Pick
It

Allen-co farmers will face the possibility of planting poor seed corn
this year if they do not select it carefully when they cut the corn, H. J. Ridge, agent, has announced.

A disease known as "Corn Root Rot" has made its appearance at Go-land and is believed to be prevalent in other portions of the county. A number of farmers have complained to the farm bureau.

As the farmer looks at an ear of corn it seems to be in good condition. When it is pressed in the hand, however, the cob gives way
and the whole ear crumbles into pieces.

Rains and a backward spring has delayed the crop in other ways, Ridge says, and it is only by selecting the corn in the field that the injury can be avoided.

Condition of the stalk of corn on which the ear is growing plays a big part in the ability of the seed to produce superior corn in the next crop.

WASIT HIGH

Ears should be around waist high
when stalks are up too high the stalk loses the ability of being blown over. When they are too low they cannot be properly pollinated.

There should be three or more ears on each stalk and the stalk itself should be healthy, strong and well formed, Ridge points out.
These rules are followed good seed
corn will result.

Each ear selected as seed corn
should be daubed with some bright colored paint or tied with a string so it may be distinguished when the corn is husked.

It is not difficult to select seed from the field, Ridge says, as any boy or man can pick out enough for 20 acres in a half day or less.

Of course, more corn than is needed must be selected because when the husking is completed there will be a number of ears which will be found unsuitable for one reason or another.

Good corn is obtained in this next year's crop will be far superior to that of this year, Ridge asserts, while if these precautions are not taken the crop will be very unsatisfactory.

ARM TORN OFF
SANDUSKY — Burt Jerry, 47, lost his right arm torn off above
the elbow when it was caught between a cable and a pulley while working at the Pennsylvania coal mine.

EAGLES INITIATE 150
TWIN — The Fraternal Order
of Eagles from Northwestern Ohio celebrated the initiation of 150 candidates as a climax to the dedication of a new $150,000 Eagles'
home.

WOMEN LAY READERS APPROVED BY DEPUTIES

PORTLAND, Ore. — Licensing of women as lay readers in the Protestant Episcopal church approved last night by the house of deputies, the deputies voted 206 to 123 to adopt a canon amendment which remains to be acted upon by the house of bishops after the Rev. Dr. Edwin A.
White of Newark, N. J., said that the innovation would help the church in many places especially in the mountain regions of the south where clergymen are not always available. The women will be authorized to render part of the church services.

The deputies squelched an attempt to insert at the end of the burial service in the prayer book a rubric forbidding the reading of the burial services over unbaptized and ex-communicated persons. This had been rejected earlier in the day.

STAY IN OHIO IF TUBERCULAR!

This is Advice of Health Men,
Who Give Reasons

Stay at home if you have tuberculosis and let content lend its aid
to proper care, to effect a cure.

This is the message of District
Health Commissioner J. J. Sutter, who says the air of Ohio is fresh and there is as much of it as in other parts of the world.

Don't send your loved ones to the Mountain States for treatment, he advises. Fresh air, good food, bodily rest and mental ease are essential, even more than climate, Sutter says.

Ohio surpasses the Mountain States in the variety, delectability and quantity of its food products and living is not only better, but cheaper.

The custom was introduced, the commissioner says, before the disease was understood. In the absence of anything better, change of climate seemed promising. It was persisted until the Mountain States have many thousands of people from other states battling for health at points from the Canadian line to the Mexican border.

Warning is being broadcasted to 50,000 tuberculous sufferers in Ohio
to stay at home by Dr. Harry H.
Snively, health director.

Snively declares the thousands who left home are without funds, scantily clothed, underfed and undernourished and in many cases death is hastened by homesickness and heartache.

A statement received by Dr. Sat-ter from Denver, Colorado, disclosed that 5,000 tuberculous individuals were in hospitals at public expense from Denver to El Paso, Texas.

Preparations even this early are being made, Sutter says, to put across in Ohio the biggest sale of health seals during the Christmas holidays in the history of the state.
Allen-co will be asked to do a large part.

Answers to "I Spy" contest should be sent to the I-Spy Editor, care of the News, with the writer's full name and address attached. Any number of replies may be contributed.

PIED FOOTBALL

Miss Bessie Root, 1016 E. Market-st., says her mother purchased an egg-plant, and prepared some of it for lunch. Her brother, five years old, did not like it, and refused to partake. At dinner he inquired what they were going to have, and asked, "Please, mother, don't cook any more of that foot-ball, 'cause I don't like it."

SEE-SAW, SEE-SAW

Mrs. Lois Conner, Alger, contributes the following:

"Recently a young cousin of mine went to the country for a visit, and while there explored the woods. On his return home, he told of two men who were cutting down trees. The men, he reports, were fighting over a saw, the one pulling this way, the other pulling the opposite way, keeping this up until a young tree on which the saw had reached, fell to the ground. They had saved the tree in two while fighting for possession of the saw, and the odd part of the proceedings, says the youngster, is that the men never said a word to one another."

HE OUGHT TO KNOW

Orma Ferguson, West Cairo, says a tourist stopped and asked him in which direction he was going. Being told that he was headed for the north, he inquired which direction was east. Being told where east was, he slowly shook his head, and inquired how long the owner had lived in that house. The gentleman told him, all his life. At which he replied, "Well, then you ought to know what you're talking about. But I still do not believe that is east."

THE RIGHT IDEA

"Recently, while at one of the neighbor's home," writes Miss Bernice Lehman, 1002 B. Linden-st., "the baby began to cry, and the mother, being busy, told her small son to rock the cradle, till the baby went to sleep."

After a few minutes, we heard a muffled sound and investigating, found the youngster very busy pasting small strips of paper across the baby's mouth.

"I'll teach you to cry and make me rock you, when I ought to be out playing," he was angrily informing it."

Following are a few answers picked at random from the many letters received in today's mail. Altho they are worthy of mention here, no tickets are issued.

SHE NEEDS THE REST

Mrs. Ora Murphy, 1008 N. West-st., submits the following: "Shortly after school started this fall, my little daughter, aged 7, in the second grade, was told that she must go to bed early so she could get up in time for school in the morning, to which she replied, 'Alright mother, I will, because when I get in the higher grades, I'll need more rest than when I'm only in the second grade, and I might as well get in the habit.'"

COAL OR IODINE

Mrs. D. E. Morrison, 525 W. Market-st., tells of being at a neighbor's house, one evening last week, when the man of the house sent his son for a box of matches. Forgetting what his father wanted, the youth returned with a loaf of bread.

Very much disgusted, the father

admonished him thusly: "You little rattle-brain, I suppose if I sent you out for bucket of coal, you'd return with a bottle of iodine or something."

ELEPHANT'S LUGGAGE

Miss Jona Dieckfeld, 618 N. Gibson-st., says her little sister grows very curious at times, and after his father's deep attention to the description of an elephant's trunk, she rose up to inquire, "Where does the elephant keep his suitcase?"

SOME PRAYER!

Glee Oleta McNutt, 53, Hazel-av., knows a youngster who says his prayers every night, always ending up with this "God bless papa, mama, brother, sister, grandma, grandpa, aunt Mary," and so on, naming about no whole relationship. The other night, she relates, he didn't feel like saying it all, so he compromised with: "God, I'm tired. Bless 'em all again, will you?"

NURSE ASKS PAY

Suit for $720 nursing fee was instituted in common pleas court by Lizzie C. Rieder, against Walter C. Green, executor of the estate of Ella Green. The plaintiff asks judgment for 24 weeks pay at $30 a week.

JEW TO WORSHIP

Rosh Hashanah Services Planned for Saturday

Lima Jews will observe Saturday Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, which will form the annual Rosh Hashanah services.

Temple Beth El, W. Market-st., will be the place of worship for reformed Jews. Services there will be conducted by Walter Rothman, student of the Hebrew Union College at Cincinnati, who is preparing for the rabbinate.

Orthodox Jews, who observe two days in honoring the holiday, will hold their services at the City Bank building.

Rosh Hashanah is the secular New Year recognized by the Jewish people. It is marked by the ritual in which the "sofar" or horn, made of the horns of a sheep used. The occasion is celebrated in order to record the spiritual excellencies of the individual.

Ten days later, Yom Kippur, annual day of fast and atonement will be observed.

SONS BORN

A son, Charles Arthur, was born to Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Fisher, 1032 W. Spring-st., Sunday. Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Hedges, Lakewood-ave., announce the birth of a son, born Sunday.

New Autumn MILLINERY

---Graceful Velvet Hats Establish a New Mode---

DIGNITY is the watch-word of autumn fashion, and it is to be noted at once in the newest hats. Many are large with a becoming sweep or unexpected roll to the brim that is quite engaging. Trimming often droops below the brim, especially feather trimming, and there is a marked preference for metal cloth ornaments.

Black is the predominating note, but there are many in the new pomegranate, billersweet, wood and browns and tiffin.

New Fall Suits

for Women and Misses

FASHION turns a bright spotlight on the Fall Suit—the first fall garment a woman chooses—the last one to lay aside in the spring. In a season of very radical style changes, Suits are showing a world of new ideas—such as the leg o' mutton sleeve, the draped skirt and the Russian side fastening. But whether your Suit is a long coated, plain tailored affair, or a gorgeous three-piece, it must have a longer skirt.

5,000 AMERICANS IN WAR ZONE

Naval Force for Their Protection is Small

PROPERTY IS ENDANGERED

Not Enough Marines at Front to Safeguard This

CONSTANTINOPLE — (Special) — Diplomacy, rather than force, is America's chief dependency in the Balkan Turkish situation.

Five thousand Americans in the war zone depend for protection on the small naval force under command of Rear Admiral Mark J. Bristol — and upon Bristol's ability in his capacity of American high commissioner to Turkey.

Admiral Bristol, alone of the foreign representatives here, has the full confidence of the Turkish authorities.

Meanwhile there has been much unrest among British, French and Italian in this region. For a long time they were at loggerheads, individuals and cliques playing secret games, politically, commercially and financially.

Whispers of violations of neutrality have been heard from time to time. America's position has been strong, for she is regarded as the only power which wants no special favors.

Uncle Sam's naval forces in European waters are, at a minimum. Only one battleship—the Utah—is in European waters and she is far away at Cherbourg. Seven destroyers, one station ship and two little submarine chasers constitute the total naval force of this government within reaching distance of the zone of trouble.

These vessels carry no landing forces of marines, to protect property. A small force of marines stationed as a consular guard at Constantinople and Smyrna is the extent of American land forces.

In addition to the lives of more than 5,000 Americans, much valuable American property is endangered by the present uprising.

Among the interests Uncle Sam most safeguard is the welfare of the representatives of the American Relief Administration, the Near East Relief, Roberts College, Constantinople College, the American Girls' College, Red Cross, American Foreign Trade Corporation, Shipping Board, Standard Oil Co., American Tobacco Co., and the Guarantee Trust Co., which has a branch there, and many others.

By a system of communication set up by the navy shortly following the armistice, Washington is enabled to communicate with Constantinople with a minimum of delay. Three hours is an outside time for a message to get thru. Under good conditions, transmission is practically direct.

Messages coming to Constantinople are wirelessly from the navy radio station at Washington to the navy radio in Paris. There the message is relayed by leased navy wires to Vienna via Coblentz. From Vienna the message goes again by navy radio to a station established in Constantinople by the American navy.

LIMA ON IMPORTANT TRAIL

LIMA has become one of the important cities on what will become one of the most widely used highways in this section of the country—the Muncie-Lima-Fremont Way. Traffic from points as far distant as Buffalo and St. Louis will pass thru this city on a paved road which extends the entire distance between these cities with the exception of a few miles to be supplied soon.

Highway men and automobile club officials from Indiana and Ohio in a meeting here a few days ago arranged the final details. The link between Muncie and Fremont was under consideration and was given the above official designation.

From St. Louis to Indianapolis, the road is known as the National trail. From Indianapolis to Muncie it is the Hoosier trail. From Muncie to Fremont, thru Lima, it is the Muncie-Lima-Fremont Way and from Fremont on it follows the Lake Shore route to Buffalo.

Traffic thru the city will be greatly increased. Many miles are cut off the distance between the two points, traffic formerly being routed thru Columbus. The acquisition of a keystone position on this trail is of much importance to Lima. It is a distinct honor to the Lima Automobile club, which was instrumental in bringing it about. It would be only fitting that some sort of public recognition of the placing of Lima on every important road map published for the first time be made. The city will receive advertising in this manner not otherwise obtainable and will become well known to tourists from north and south. The automobile club deserves credit for the excellent work it has done and continued support of the public in advancing the interests of Lima.

FROM JUNGLE TO CIVILIZATION

THE toddle, camel-walk and similar dances are observed in Chicago by E. N. Newman. Then he takes a long trip into central Africa—and finds the natives dancing the same steps. This surprises him, but it shouldn't.

The distance from the Congo savage to civilized man is mainly one of mileage. Civilized veneer is thin. Sailors say if three men are adrift long enough in a boat, the weakest two usually are eaten.

HENNER'S STRIKE

SOMETHING new in strikes is now in effect in Detroit. Henry Ford has called out 100,000 workmen, says the Chicago Tribune, which has the following to say:

"It is a strike against the high cost of coal, and incidentally against Wall Street."

"Thus we may see in the 'strike' a renewal of the time honored battle of capital and labor, under a new guise. In this case Mr. Ford calls out the labor and the workmen supply the capital for the struggle. Mr. Ford will have opportunity to take his annual inventory without at the same time maintaining his pay roll. He will see the market for flippers improve thru the selling off of stocks on hand and the shortening of supply, just as the coal operators saw their markets and their chances for profit improve during the coal strike. He will obtain millions of dollars' worth of free advertising contributed by credulous editors throughout the country, who have developed the habit of thinking and saying that whatever Ford does is right."

"And the 100,000 idle workmen will pay for it all with the loss of their daily wages thruout the period of the 'strike'."

RECKLESS

ARE you careful in motoring over a railroad crossing? Safety experts check up 164,000 cars crossing railroad tracks. They find only about 4000 drivers stop their cars to make sure no trains are coming. 32,000 look only one way. 81,000 take no precautions at all. Only one driver in four is really careful. Are you one of the four, playing safe?

WAR

FRANCE and England race to out-build each other in battle airplanes. Tension between the two countries is serious enough to add a few more white hairs to diplomats' heads.

You reflect, "One'd think they'd had enough of wars." If things came to a showdown, events would prove you right. Another big European war is not probable—yet. Have to wait until the people have saved enough to pay for the last one and finance another. War and thrift are blood-relations.

RADIO

ABOUT 100,000 apartments in New York City now are equipped with radio receiving sets, according to a trade estimate.

One radio maker has orders for 25,000 wireless receivers that can be operated only by dropping a quarter in a slot. The day is close at hand when all rooms in first-class hotels will have these slot machines, says the Messenger, hotel trade paper.

KEGS

KEG manufacturers say a great change is taking place in their industry. The popularity of the five-gallon keg seems to be on the wane.

Apparently last year's sample batch was satisfactory, for the demand now is for 10-gallon kegs, with 15 and 25-gallon sizes crowding Brother Ten.

The current sensation among home brewers is the 52-gallon used whiskey barrel, direct from bonded warehouses. Some experts say a whiff at the bung is worth the price of the barrel.

POEMS YOU WILL ENJOY

By BERTON BRADLEY

THE GARAGE MAN

Oh, motorists, I bid you all observe this individual, Who never has a bit of time for play, To judge by bills he tenders you for service that he renders you There's forty hours in every working day! In winter-time or clover-time he's always toiling overtime (At any rate it reads so on the bills), And yet he bears with bravery this unrelenting slavery And prospers while he goes the pace that kills.

Your motor runs unsteadily? He looks it over readily, Then shakes his head and says, with manner bleak, "We'll have to take the car apart, your gears are running far apart."

Your crankshaft's bent—the job will take a week! Complaining very fretfully, you leave the car regretfully, And when you're gone he takes your ailing churn

And runs it for a chug or two, puts in a new spark-plug or two, And—soaks you sixty bucks when you return.

Black grease is on his fingers there, I don't see how it lingers there, The way he wipes it off upon your paint,

And on your seats luxurious, but tho' it's very curious, His hands retain their black and grimy taint;

We curse his rates burglarious, we knock his notions various, We say he's only out to gouge and rob,

But when the car runs jumpily and jorkily and grumpily, Oh, gosh, we're glad to have him on the job!

COMMON SENSE WAYS TO KEEP WELL
CARE OF THE TEETH

BY DR. R. H. BISHOP

People always admire a beautiful set of teeth. Why is it, then, that more people don't take good care of their teeth and have beautiful sets of their own?

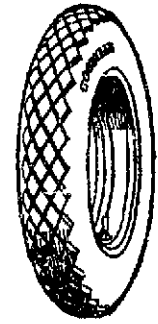

The nose and the mouth are the busiest parts of entry for disease in the human body, the mouth particularly, if the teeth are defective.

The mucous membrane of the mouth is, in itself, quite resistant to disease germs, yet at times it becomes infected and pus-forming germs bore their way to the roots of the teeth and the bones of the face, producing suffering, disfigurement and sometimes even loss of life. It is a fact that too many people dig their graves with their teeth.

The best way to clean the teeth is to place the bristles of the brush firmly against them, then, applying pressure, as if trying to force the bristles between them, to proceed with a slight rotary scrubbing motion. The brushing finished, take a mouthful of lukewarm water, and with lips, cheeks and tongue, using all the force you can, force the water between and around the teeth, repeating this cleansing process several times.

The teeth should be cleansed in the morning, before retiring at night and after each meal, if possible.

Long life, happiness and prosperity depend much upon a clean mouth full of healthy teeth.

Suffering from Lime-Starvation?

Dr. Sherman of Columbia University says that half the American people are suffering from lime starvation. This explains the decay of teeth and lack of pep. The fact is in our eating. We almost wholly lack in the very elements the body requires—lime for the bones and muscles, iron for the blood and vitamin B which every tissue needs. No wonder most of us are only half alive!

If you want to know what a difference complete food makes, try eating "ZEP" for a week. "ZEP" is something new and delicious in breakfast foods—a complete food in that it supplies the essentials to live and thrive—vitamin B, food iron, and food lime. And delicious! Make you never set down to a more enjoyable dish. Ready to serve with cream, milk or fruit juices.

naught of import. So, for a shoe manicure at the Manhattan cagery. Thence by F. D. Carpenter's noble tramway to St. Marys, via of Gust Brown's town. To visit my rich sister, who was entertaining her parents. Mother and sister on arrival. Metho-dising. Mother declaring it the best sermon she ever did hear.

Sat to a fruit cup; chicken, Southern style, sweet and Irish pommes de terre, a tomato salad. And cottage pudding for the sweet. Lighting a fag, looked up thru the foliage of the screened grate porch. And saw driving by, the Hon. William L. Mackenzie and his family. I still insist the Hon. W. L. should long since have been sent to Congress.

In the afternoon, abroad to the fast pace set by septuagenarian and a half "Daubie." As this generation would call him. Father as the preceding born, were taught. Papa as their predecessors were wont to hisp. And "paw" as I knew him. Until Sister Pet came back from Ohio We-Jeyan, first term.

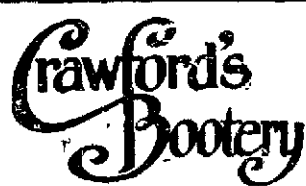

Albeit, my daddie making me heave like a poodle dog following a mastiff. Cornered me thru the interesting city. Leading me gently far out to a burial ground. Where was the last resting place of a famous Union soldier. The Brig-Gen. U. S. Grant honored to command the first troops entering Richmond, '65. His name on the worn cement aged marble, General August Willich. A Prussian trained officer, banished from Germany for leading the revolution of 1848. Came to Ohio.

Enlisted as private in 9th Ohio V. I. Became Colonel of the 32d regiment. Promoted twice for brilliancy in action. Thence to Generalissimo.

Then Paw—I forgot, pardon—Dad-die took me to the old Dieker House. And pointed out the room where General Willich breathed his last. Wonderful daddie. Coming therefrom, waved to Dr. Shuffleton, the expert diagnostician and eminent golfer. Who has all of Shawnee Country club's trophies hanging in a row in his lab. They tell me. And I know he started home with 'em. And speaking of doctors and so such. There's Dr. Harry Noble, the globe trotter. Who lunched with the Apes at Gibraltar. And they wanted him to stay as Surgeon-General to the Boss Kahib. Like Doc Sawyer is to Warren G.

In the evening, came back in one of F. D.'s new low-back, stream-line bodied yellow coaches. Running like a Pullman. Only having time to eat one banana between Marys and Wapak. A mixed quartette boarded the bus at McBeth's, exuding the odors of Macklin's. The unctuous one said, she didn't care if they did lower 'em, her's was going to stay up. Both wore bobbed hayre a la negligence.

So, kissed my wife, poor wretch, and she skilleted two sandwiches of hen-fruit and the biscuits from lunch, smoothly browned and buttered. Over the java she told me. By using staplers with the adhesive the pajama jacket would do another night. Too tired to see if Metcalf-st bridge is opened.

MANY NEW PLANTS GOING UP

Activity in West is Described by B. C. Forbes

Factories are multiplying

Writer Back in New York After Investigating Trip

(BY B. C. FORBES)
NEW YORK — (Special) — The writer is back in New York after an extensive trip through the West, half cynically, "Well, is the West going to run the East out of business?"

Reflection on this momentous question immediately sends one's mind deep down into fundamentals. A volume could not furnish an exhaustive answer. In a single column all one can do is to mention a few of the basic considerations involved. What are they?

What is the relative fertility of the ground East and on the West?

As hydro-electric developments make it increasingly easy to irrigate western soil, its productivity becomes more and more of a national factor, making it not only feasible but easy for people to earn wealth in that part of the country. It is almost literally true that all that is needed to transform western deserts into fertile gardens and fields is water. And engineering science is rapidly supplying the needed water.

What of the climate?

Elaborate tests have been conducted, not by theorists, but by very practical-minded industrial corporations, to determine whether workers in the East or workers in the West can and do perform the greater amount of work. These tests have resulted in favor of the West.

Moreover, the absence of vigorous winter with accompanying heavy snowfall, is a consideration often of great importance in determining the best location for an industry. The Pacific Coast here has the advantage over the Atlantic coast.

Furthermore, the climate of the Pacific is attracting to that part of the country constantly increasing numbers of families possessing enough wealth to enable them to retire. The influx of people of this class greatly exceeds anything understood by those of us unfamiliar with the actual facts.

The problem of distribution is arresting more and more attention in the business world. The establishing of factories and other plants in the West is a movement now gaining marked headway. I am sure the Eastern public haven't any adequate conception of the progress being made in the industrial development of the Far-West. Not only are our mammoth national corporations building plants in the West, but western manufacturing enterprises are steadily multiplying. I was astonished to find, for example, the extent of furniture manufacturing in the Pacific States. Again, Los Angeles is becoming a notable manufacturing center. I may have already mentioned that the manager of one department store there informed me that its purchase of strictly locally manufactured merchandise will this year amount to $3,500,000—this, for one store, please note.

In this connection, it is worth mentioning the recent formation of a powerful combination of western capitalists to launch iron and steel mills in Utah on a scale which promises to reach very important proportions.

Looking ahead, the effect the coming development of the Orient will have upon our West is a matter of the first magnitude. Without question, the day is coming when the Pacific ocean will become as thick with ships as the Atlantic. The growth of activity in all our Pacific ports is already notable.

Also, the heavy cost of rail transportation has meant, and probably will continue to mean, marked expansion in water-borne traffic between the Pacific coast and the Atlantic coast, to say nothing of European ports, now that the Panama canal is available.

To my mind, the development of Los Angeles harbor will be by and by attract national and international attention.

One of the greatest lumber enterprises in the world is betting under way there. Plans have been made for bringing, by water, untold quantities of timber from virgin Canadian forests and manufacturing it at a Los Angeles harbor.

As for shipbuilding, the Pacific coast promises to rival the Atlantic coast. Indeed, enthusiasts believe that the labor and climatic conditions on the Pacific will enable ship yards there to outdistance those anywhere else in the country. And if the United States is to take the place on the ocean we all hope it is destined to take, shipbuilding should become one of our very important industries.

When we consider what we are constantly told about coming exhaustion of coal and oil supplies, the West's hydro-electric actualities and potentialities must be taken into the reckoning.

The mineral deposits of large parts of the West are declared by experts to have been little more than scratches, largely because of lack of feasible transportation thus far. By and by, however, the inaccessible will become accessible.

Please understand that what is here set down is in answer to the cynical lightened question as to whether the West is going to run the East out of business. I rather think that a great many of us domiciled in the East feel rather supercilious, rather superior towards the West. These hurriedly jotted-down reflections are intended to modify such an attitude.

But let no one poo-poo what the farther West already is today and what it is destined to become tomorrow.

Members of the family of W. F. Hodde, 372 N. Jackson-st., said Tuesday that the raid by police on an alleged gambling place was not at their home. Men arrested by police gave his address. The Hodde family says the raid was on a place in the rear of their home, on the B. & O. alley.

CANADA RAIL MEN MAY STRIKE

Walkout Over Cut in Wages is Threatened

40,000 MEN ARE INVOLVED

Car and Locomotive Shop Workers to be Affected

MONTREAL — (Special) — Canada may soon have a railway strike of its own. Wages are the sole point of contention.

Unless some agreement is reached between the companies and their employees within the next few days 35,000 to 40,000 men in the car and locomotive shops expect to stop work.

The controversy goes back to last July 16, when the railroads announced wage cuts of five, seven and nine cents an hour for the several grades of work.

Having followed the United States lines when the wages were increased, the Canadian companies claimed that they were justified in cutting them when the American rates went down.

The employees didn't see it that way. As a result of their objections the order reducing wages was revoked pending the action of a board of conciliation.

This body, acting under a federal act governing such disputes, decided that the wage cut was fair and that it should be retroactive to August 15.

Shopmen refused to accept the ruling and sent out notices that a strike may be called at any moment.

The Hon. James Murdock, minister of labor, intervened and requested the companies again to discuss the situation with the men.

"Canada," he said, "deserves in her present difficulties better treatment from both the men and the companies than she has received so far."

So a new conference was arranged. R. J. Tallen, president of Division No. 4, Railway Employees Union, American Federation of Labor, is taking the lead for the workers. George Hodges, assistant manager of the Canadian Pacific, represented the employers in hearings before the board of conciliation.

BIG SLUMP IN COAL PRICES IS PREDICTED

COLUMBUS — Advising that a band to mouth coal buying rule should prevail instead of consumer purchasing large supplies of coal at present prices. City Purchasing Agent H. H. Cain, of Columbus, predicted that by the last November coal will be selling from $2 to $2.50 a ton less than the prevailing prices.

DUMBBELLS

Ma Proves She is Dumb One—Here Are a Few "Thinks"

WHEN it comes to dumbness, our Star reporter, assigned to the "case" of the Dumbbell family in Lima, is having his troubles in endeavoring to find out which member is the dumbest.

Today he had a chat with Mr. Shurza Dumbbell. She was all afflatus when he saw her for an interview. She said she couldn't give him much time for it is so lonesome since the children, Ina, Heza and Iza, started to school she was just going out to hunt a Woman's Home Companion, for she wanted someone in the house with her.

She talked some about Lima on which the dumb family inflicted itself a few days ago. Said she hadn't been around much, but intended to go out and see the filtration plant, having been informed it was one of the most beautiful flowers in existence.

She had some other "thinks," a few of which our reporter has recorded here to prove to you she's the dumbest woman in the world. Here they are:

She thinks I. W. W. is a radio broadcasting station. That Billy Sunday is an ice cream dip.

That Valle Forge is a blacksmith shop.

Mae Marsh is a swamp.

Babe Ruth is a chorus girl.

That butter is a goat.

A running board is a race entry.

A necktie is a baseball term.

River bugs have sheets.

A wireless bug flies with messages.

And then our reporter left her at the corner while she made her way to the employment agency in search of the Companion.

Do you know any dumb thoughts?

ROBBERY CHARGED

Guilt Denied by Williams—Held to Grand Jury

Highway robbery was charged to Chif Williams, 35, colored, N. Union-st., when arraigned in police court Tuesday.

Williams pleaded not guilty, waived preliminary examination and was held to the grand jury on a $200 bond.

The affidavit charging him with the felony was signed by Charles Joliff, 319 E. Elm-st., who alleges Williams relieved him of a pocket-book containing $17 in cash.

The alleged robbery is said to have occurred Saturday night while Williams and Joliff were riding together in a buggy on Jackson-st. Joliff says Williams took the pocket-book and jumped from the vehicle.

Williams was arrested Monday after a warrant was placed in the hands of police.

POWER CONTRACT BELIEVED NEAR

Legal Problem Only, Standing in Way at Present

Agreement with the Ohio Power Co. regarding rates will be possible providing the procedure is legal, it appeared following an informal meeting of the city commission Monday night.

Members of the commission voiced themselves in favor of arriving at the best possible agreement with the power company as soon as possible. It is believed the proposed rates will be satisfactory.

Rates as proposed by the company bring lowered lighting costs to domestic consumers and large power users and only slightly increased prices to the middle class of consumers.

Street lighting rates proposed by the city have been met by the company providing the contract will be for 10 years. It is the legal phase of a 10 year contract which is in doubt.

With the return of the city solicitor from his vacation the commission will attempt to clear up all difficulties and bring adequate power to the city.

Agreement with the Ohio Power Co. will also mean the acceptance of the street railway franchise and consequently greatly improved street car service in the city.

In the regular meeting of the commission minor matters only were discussed. The meeting was short and in the absence of C. A. Bingham, city manager, was devoid of features.

"LISTENING IN" STILL GOES ON, EVIDENCE IN DIVORCE CASE SHOWS

That telephone communication along country party lines is far from secret was disclosed in common pleas court when witnesses in the Ramsdell divorce case testified to hearing conversations between the plaintiff, Mrs. Hazel Ramsdell, and her mother, Wesley Reed Ramsdell, in an effort to show his wife left him, because she could not endure country life. Judge Fred C. Becker has the case under advisement.

ALIAS THE LONE WOLF

BY LOUIS JOSEPH VANCE

BEGIN HERE TODAY
For years the brilliant member of the English Secret Service had been known as ANDRE DUCHEMIN. Now to the woman he loved, EVE DE MONTALAI, he confessed that he was the notorious cracksman, NICHOLAS LANYARD, known to the police of the world as the LONE WOLF. But the confession came only after Eve de Montalais had been robbed of her jewels while Lanyard was a guest in her chateau, recuperating from a bullet wound inflicted by the Apache from whom he had rescued Eve and her relatives.

Eve believes Lanyard innocent and accepts his offer to trace the jewels. His mind immediately leaps back to a strange visit to the chateau paid by a party consisting of WHITAKER MONK, his secretary, PHINNEY, the latter's brother, and JULES who acted as chauffeur, and the COUNT AND COUNTESS DE LORGNE. They asked clever questions about Eve's jewels and warned her of the Lone Wolf.

GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XI

The Lone Wolf Takes the Trail

Early in the afternoon Lanyard examined the safe without exciting comment in the household. He was nearly an hour thus engaged, but brought back to the drawing room only a face of disappointment.

"Nothing," he retorted to Eve. "Evidently a gentleman of rigidly formal habits, our friend of last night—wouldn't dream of calling at any hour without his gloves on."

However, I've been thinking a bit as well, I hope to some purpose."

The woman nodded intently as he drew up his chair and sat down.

"You have made a plan," she stated rather than inquired.

"I won't call it that, not yet. Assuming for the sake of argument that Mr. Whitaker Monk and his lot had a hand in this—"

"Ah! you think that?"

"I admit I'm unfair. But first they quarrel with my sense of the normal by being too confoundingly picturesque, too sharp and smart and glib. What right had they to make so many ambiguous gestures?"

"Leading the talk up to my jewels, you mean?"

"I mean every move they made. Madame la Comtesse de Lorgne—whether she is—must get her feet wet, an excellent excuse for asking to be introduced to your boudoir, so she may spy out the precise location of your safe."

"Then—Madame de Lorgne guiding the conversation by secret signals which I interpret—somebody recognizes me as the Lone Wolf, and you are obviously warned that if your jewels should happen to disappear it's more than likely the Lone Wolf will prove to be the guilty party."

"On the other hand, there's your chauffeur—what's his name?"

"Albert Dupont. Is he one of them, their employee or confederate?"

"I fancy not. I may be wrong."

PATTERN FOR TODAY

but I believe he is entirely on his own—quite independent of the Monk party."

"And your plan of campaign is based on this conclusion?"

"That's a big name—Lanyard's name was different, a plea for suspended judgment on his lack of inventiveness—for a lame idea, they hoped to shift suspicion on to my shoulders. Well, let them believe they have done so."

The waiting hostility developed in a sharp negative: "Ah, no!"

"You will observe," he continued, light persuasive, "it is Andre Duchemin who will be accused, madame, not Michael Lanyard, never the Lone Wolf!"

"For when I say he will disappear tonight, I mean it quite literally; Andre Duchemin will never more be heard of in this world."

She had a smile quivering on her lips, yet shook her head.

"Monsieur forgets I learned to know him under the name of Duchemin."

"If madame, in her charity, means to continue to know me, it must be Michael Lanyard whom she suffers to claim a little portion of her friendship."

"More than a little, monsieur, more than a little friendship only!"

"I know no way to think you," he managed to say at last.

"For what?"

"For everything—kindness, charity, sympathy."

"What are those things?" she demanded with a nervous little laugh.

"Words! Just words that you and I use to hide behind, like timid children..."

She rose suddenly and offered him her hand. "But I don't think it's any use, my friend, I'm quite sure that neither of us is deceived. No; say nothing more; the time is not yet and—we both can wait. Only know I understand the now—her fingers tightened round his—but don't stay away any longer than you must, don't be influenced by silly traditions, false and foolish standards when you think of me. ## CHAPTER XII

Travels with an Assassin

Lanyard, gray with dust and weariness of twenty leagues of heavy walking, trudged into the sleeping streets of the town of Tournemire and purchased a ticket for Lyons.

As the engine began to snort, a man darted from behind the tiny structure that housed the ticket-office, galloped heavily across the platform, and with nothing to spare threw himself into the compartment immediately behind Lanyard.

This maneuver was performed so unexpectedly that Lanyard caught barely a glimpse of the fellow; but one glimpse was enough. It was Monsieur Albert Dupont who had failed to assassinate the then Andre Duchemin more than three weeks ago.

At Lyons fortune favored Lanyard. The station was well thronged, a circumstance which enabled him to keep inconspicuously close to his victim. Furthermore, Dupont was obviously looking for somebody, and so distracted.

Presently a shabby, furtive little rat of a man nudged his elbow, and Dupont followed him to a corner.

Lanyard secured a berth and went about his business profoundly mystified. Beyond a shadow of fair doubt Dupont was up to some new devilment, but Lanyard would be surprised if its nature failed to develop on the train or at least upon its arrival in Paris the next morning.

It was no later than seven in the evening when he left a room which he had engaged in a hotel and left a changed man.

The pointed beard of Monsieur Duchemin was no more. The rough-tweed walking suit had been replaced by a blue serge.

The papers of Andre Duchemin were crisp black ashes in the fireplace of the room which Lanyard had just quitted, all but the letter of credit, and this last was enclosed in an envelope, to be sent to London by registered post with a covering note to request that the unpaid balance be forwarded in French bank notes to Monsieur Paul Martin, general delivery, Paris; Paul Martin being the name which appeared on an entirely new set of papers of identification which Lanyard had thoughtfully secreted in the lining of the tweed coat before leaving London.

Lanyard had testimony to the thoroughness of the transformation in his looks twice within an hour.

The first was when, leaving the hotel he found himself suddenly face to face with Dupont.

The heady little eyes of the thug comprehended him in a glance, and rejected him as of positively no interest to Albert Dupont, a complete stranger and a cheap one at that.

He re-entered the hotel and sought its restaurant, where the waiting Long Arm of Coincidence took him by the hand and led him to a table immediately adjoining one occupied exclusively by Monsieur le Comte de Lorgnes.

But now, Lanyard told himself, one knew what had dragged Dupont in such hot haste to Lyons. Somehow word had reached him, probably by telegraph, that monsieur le Comte was waiting there to keep a rendezvous. And if you asked him, Lanyard would confess his firm conviction that the other party to the rendezvous would prove to be the person (or persons) who had effected the burglary at Chateau de Montalais.

But as time passed it became evident that there had been a hitch somewhere; de Lorgnes was fretting when Lanyard first saw him; before his dinner was half served his nerve was giving way.

At length, de Lorgnes called for his addition and fled the restaurant. Lanyard arrived in the foyer in time to see de Lorgnes settle his account and hear him instruct a porter to have his luggage ready for the one-twelve express for Paris.

At midnight de Lorgnes was wholly in despair. Half an hour later wove an unsteady but most dignified way back to the foyer of the hotel.

Immediately Dupont and his fellow paid and left the cafe.

Lanyard returned to his room to get a new-bought traveling bag, and started for the train at four.

In the Gare de Perrache Lanyard witnessed a farewell scene between the little man and Dupont.

And when Monsieur le Comte de Lorgnes had waved thru the gateway in tow of a luggage-laden porter, and Dupont had torn himself away from his fond familiar and lurched after the count, and Lanyard, after a little wait, had followed in turn; he was able to see for himself that Dupont had contrived to be berthed in the same carriage with de Lorgnes; proving that he did not mean to let the count out of sight, day or night.

Well weary, Lanyard proceeded to his own compartment, in the car ahead, and turned in.

But he was not of those who sleep well on trains. He was awake at Dijon and again at Laroche, about a quarter after six. There, peering out of the window to identify the station, he was startled to see the broad, round-shouldered back of Albert Dupont making away across the rails—leaving the train.

It was not feasible to dress and pursue, even had it been wise.

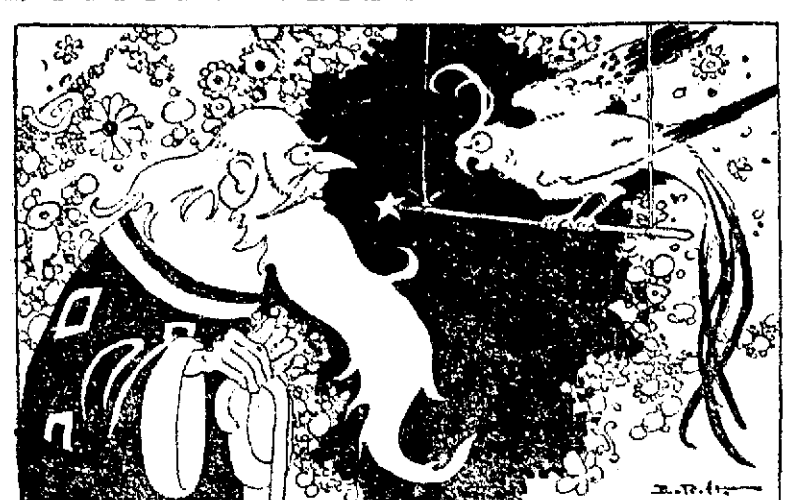

The newspapers of Paris, that day, had a sensation: in a compartment which he had occupied alone on the night express from Lyons, a man had been found with his throat cut, his clothing ripped to rags, even his fingernails slashed to ribbons.

Whether thru chance or intention, every possible clue to the victim's identity was missing.

FLAP-DOODLE BECOMES A DONKEY

By Olive Roberts Barton

The pretended wizard looked up shyly.

In marched Nancy and Nick to that's his name."

"All right, thank you," said Nancy then. "We'll go. The Fairy Queen's wand has been lost for ever and ever so long, and we must hurry up and find it."

The pretend wizard looked up shyly at the stick his parrot was perched on. Little did the Twins think that it was the very thing they were looking for.

"Go inside, my dears," said the wizard, and when you see a nice little brown donkey, jump on and ride away."

No sooner were their backs turned than Flap-Doodle turned himself into a donkey and trotted up to his own front door.

He worried and he retted,
For some one way to do it,
The baseball season's fading out
And he can't sell his suit

The Brooklyn Dodgers have released pitcher Snodgrass Smith to the Cleveland Indians.

Eddie R. Schell, shaded Blackie Richard, of Dayton last night in Toledo.

The total lead in the National League was increased to six 1/2 runs Monday when the New Yorks defeated Cincinnati 7 to 1.

Fielding was not new to him in any baseball game. He fielded first down on the team which makes all fields the sure.

It has been found that it was eleven old 13 who were both a 13 and out of the 13. The 13 was found in the 13. The 13 was found in the 13.

Deton may give the Yankees the setback that St. Louis could not.

TWO KAYOES, FOUL,
DECISION ON CARD

TWO knockouts, a win on a foul and a decision resulted from the opening indoor boxing show, staged Monday night by the Lima Gym club at Memorial Hall.

In the main event Jake Gross, Lima's featherweight pride, completely outclassed K. O. Circus of Pitsburg, mauling him from start to finish of the 12 rounds. Circus was hit with everything but the timer's bell, but always he came up with a grin on his face, ready for more.

The bout between Sailor Grant of Lima and Joe Packo of Toledo ended suddenly in the third round when the former crumpled up, claiming he had been fouled. A wait of ten minutes was called, but Grant's condition became worse instead of better and he was ordered to the dressing room for an investigation. The examining physician, Dr. O. E. Chenoweth, stated he had been unimpairedly struck low and could not continue. He was declared winner on a foul.

Grant was game against his more experienced opponent and his left lunges found Andrews' chin repeatedly. He used the ropes to advantage and his daring in general was received with applause. Brown weighed 119 1/2, Andrews, 122 1/2.

It was a mystery to fans how Circus managed to stay with Gross for the full route. Of short stature, leg heavy and cumbersome, the Pittsburgher's appearance belied his real worth. He took everything Gross had and almost was out in the third, sixth and ninth frames, but each time the bell prolonged his stay.

ALL BUT ONE — The Lima boy copped every round, except the third, which, by reason of two hard blows, a smash to Gross' chin and a terrific solar plexus, made it even. Circus' blocking warded off the finishing punch many times when Gross was hammering him against the ropes. Circus weighed 129 1/2, Gross, 129.

A good crowd turned out. Charley Maxwell officiated and "Cappy" Wessel did the announcing.

NEW FILM THAT DEALS WITH DREAM STUFF

(BY ESTHER WAGNER)
CAN two souls inhabit one body? Or can one soul inhabit two bodies? And if the latter holds true, what happens to the one soul when the other dies? Deep stuff!
"Dusk to Dawn," Florence Vidor's latest picture, puts forth the idea that the subconscious self may have a soul separate and apart from that of the conscious self. The subconscious soul belongs to an Indian beggar maid. It takes possession of the body as soon as the conscious self goes to sleep. Thus the heroine will not marry the hero until her dream soul dies. She may give her conscious soul to him, but the subconscious soul belongs to a handsome rajah to whom she has given herself in dream marriage.
The heroine is unable to keep awake as she sits in an auto. She falls asleep and finds herself in the arms of her dream husband. When she awakes she finds her carly hero kissing her and, still under the influence of the dream, finds his kiss the same as that of her ethereal rajah.
Those who "believe in dreams" will find support for their belief in "Dusk to Dawn."
King Vidor's special fort is in the handling of simple themes and in the development of characterizations. This talent was best exemplified in "The Jack Knife Man," one of the screen's masterpieces.

Majestic theatre. Also other features.
AT THE RIALTO:
"The Affairs of Anatol" boasts a cast of super importance, including Wallace Reid, Gloria Swanson, Bebe Daniels, Wanda Hawley and others. At the Rialto again today.
STUDIO GOSSIP
The cast for "Peg O' My Heart," starring Laurette Taylor, includes Mahlon Hamilton, Ethel Grey Terry, Russell Simpson, Lionel Belmore, Vera Lewis, D. R. O. Hatwell and Nigel Barry.
"Emmy Lou," Viola Dana's next
Phyllis Haver will be leading lady in Buster Keaton's next comedy.
Rex Ingram has taken his company to Miami, Fla., to film scenes for "The Passion Vine."
Edward Sloman is directing "A Honeymoon for Three."
A price of 9,000,000 marks has been asked for distribution rights for "The Kid" in Germany. That amounts to about 25,000 American simoleons.
"A Circus Story" Shirley Mason's next.
First they called it "A Kiss in the Dark," then "Blood Will Tell" now it's "Do and Dare" What's the diff?
John Emerson and Anita Loos, back from Europe, are preparing two scenarios for Constance Tammage.
"One Stolen Night," starring Corinne Griffith, is another of those Sahara desert films with an Arab as the hero.

Conquers Eczema or Money Back

Wonderful new treatment discovered by prominent physician has now been put on the market and is guaranteed to cure all skin diseases and ailments. It is called Eucerin and is a colorless and powerful antiseptic that contains no lead or anything that will injure the most delicate skin. It is my practice," says Dr. Johnson, "I used many kinds of so-called 'skin cures,' but never until I found Eucerin did I see such beautiful and satisfactory results. I use it on all my patients, men as well as women. It causes the skin and makes it soft and fresh looking, at the same time it produces a firmness and gives power to the tissues, instantly relieving skin troubles. All those to whom I have recommended it are delighted with its results. I suggest everywhere sell a good jar of Eucerin for 10 cents and guarantee it you are sure to get it. Now Is The Time To Decide On Your Heating Problem For This Winter

We are prepared for the first rush of Stove business with the most complete line we have ever shown, comprising some old well known makes of Heating and Cooking Stoves and Ranges, familiar to Lima people. Call and look over our lines.

THE RETORT HEATER

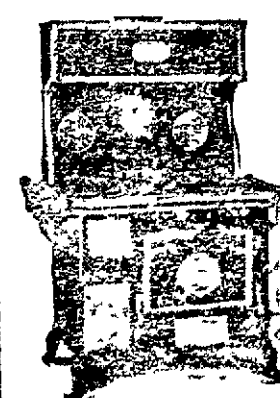

has been sold in Lima for the past Twenty Years. It is the only Soft Coal Base Burner on the market. Fill the magazine, shake it down morning and evening and you have an evenly heated house all winter with no fires to build after starting this stove. It is a dependable high grade stove and will burn any kind of fuel and hold fire longer than the ordinary soft coal stove.

For those who have no coal at present there is nothing better than the

Open Front Copper Reflector Back Gas Heater

Just the thing to take off the chills morning and evenings. Blue steel bodies, copper lined, all sizes, 9 inches wide to 28 inches wide, prices

$2.98 up

Our line of Combination Coal and Gas Ranges cannot be excelled anywhere. This season we have added the

Famous Champion Combination Range

to our large line. Easily shifted from gas to coal or coal to gas. There are hundreds of Champion Ranges in use in Lima. A neat compact Range of high quality. Prices

$119 up

Other Combination Ranges, $75.00 up.

OIL HEATER

makes an ideal stove for this time of the year. A reliable stove for small rooms or to take the chill off large room before starting your furnace. Many people will use these oil heaters this fall to conserve their coal supply. They are already selling.

Announces A

Fur Event
Of Unusual Importance

Quality is the big word in this organization and on nothing is more concentration made than on furs. Our Mr. Albert I. Straus, known as one of America's Foremost Fur Experts, has personally selected every pelt that is in this vast collection, and they are sold with the one understanding in mind that if our Furs do not make good, we will.

This event, unusual in its importance from the viewpoint, not alone of Quality, but as to the newness of styles and goods offered, not one piece of fur was in this stock prior to Monday last—Hence you can realize the importance, not so called sale furs, but Quality furs at sale prices.

Since there is but one of each style garment, we refrain from quoting prices, but shall deem it a privilege to have you inspect them.

NEW YORK.—Strengthening of foreign exchange rates in Europe and local centers, reflecting an easing of the tension in the Near East, resulted in a slight advance of prices in today's early trading on the stock exchange. The advance was the best recovery since the heaviness which spread over yesterday's list. Gains of 1 to 2 points being recorded by Union Pacific, Louisville and Nashville, Rock Island and Seaboard. Air Line preferred, Ods, gas and some of the oil shares moved to higher ground. Royal Dutch, Mexican Petroleum, United States Steel common, Lackawanna, LaCrosse Gas and Consolidated Gas, Adams Express and Westinghouse made substantial advances in the specialty group. Bethlehem and Vanadium steels were fractionally lower with Allied Chemical, Virginia Carolina Chemical preferred, and Union Carbide and Graphite common and preferred. Losses of a point and more took place in American Zinc and American Sugar. Prices continued to harden during the morning but trading was relatively quiet. Fresh buying was applied to balance the liquidation of accounts weakened by yesterday's price reaction. There were no striking individual movements, the trading in order being under demand for rail zinc public utility oil, shipping and can shares. In addition to the early leaders, gains of one to three points were made by American Zinc preferred, Utah Copper, North American and Standard Oil of California. Postum Cereal, American International Marine preferred, General Electric common and preferred, May Department Stores, Gulf, New Orleans, Texas and Mexico and Soo preferred. Call money opened at 4 per cent.

Selling from speculative sources having practically ceased, the stock market today had a natural rebound with the upturn accomplished on a good volume of business. More favorable developments in the Near East situation combined with the liquidation of a number of weak and speculative accounts contributed to the more cheerful sentiment. Sales approximated 900,000 shares. The closing was strong.

STOCK AND GRAIN GOSSIP

Stock market is again getting easier. Belief that long lines should be reduced at this level and good sized declines will be recorded, is adhered to.

In view of the fact that the stock market has enjoyed practically an uninterrupted advance for the better part of the year, it does not seem reasonable to entertain the idea that the reaction of the last few sessions has been sufficient to correct the technical market foundation.

Stockholders of the Bethlehem Steel company and Lackawanna Steel Monday formally approved plans under which the latter's property will be absorbed.

Increased confidence in values will go a long way toward helping the market, regardless of foreign developments.

Sinclair Pipe Line has placed with the National Tube an order for approximately $25,000,000 worth of pipes for use in connection with extension of company's lines to Houston, Texas, and Teapot Dome, Texas.

Unofficial reports are to the effect that directors of Cosden will take some action favorable to the company's stockholders. It was hinted the annual dividend of $2.50 a share may be increased, which indicates an issue of new stock is certain with the calling of the $5,625,000 outstanding convertible bonds for payment.

MUTT AND JEFF—WORSE THINGS THAN THAT COULD HAPPEN TO A GUY—

By BUD FISHER

BRINGING UP FATHER

—BY McMANUS

SHORT SHAVINGS

Fred Disman, movie operator, recalls his first trip in a Pullman.

"I had an upper berth," he says. "All afternoon I wondered where it was, but tried to appear perfectly at ease. When finally it was made up and I could see it, I felt much relieved."

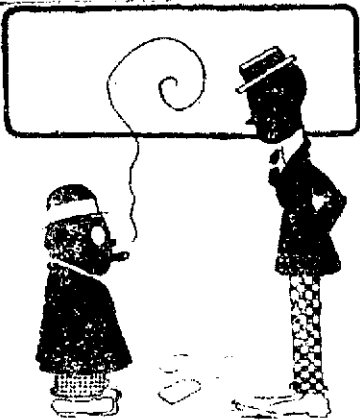

"Soon after I climbed into it, the train came to a sudden stop. I wondered what the reason was, and found out all too soon. The conductor came thru the car, passed under my berth and shouted, 'Tidy up! Take your clothes off the bull rope!'"

Charles Baber, 418 W. Vine-st., called to see his sister who had been sick. In the reception room he noticed a gas burner that had not been taken down during the summer. It was covered with a black mosquito bar, which he didn't quite identify.

"I'm sorry, sis," he said. "I haven't been here to take that stove out and clean it. It's covered with cobwebs."

E. N. Warden, 118 S. Melrose-st., tells of a friend who drove his elegant sedan flyover to Cadiz, O. "The car balked on the high hills. A native told him that often there is a difficulty there with cars which have no vacuum tank. By unscrewing the top of the fuel tank and blowing into it, he was told, he could develop sufficient pressure to feed the engine for a short distance. He did this. Then when the car would stop he would climb out and blow into the tank again. He made the distance finally, and arrived exhausted and red in the face from his exertions in blowing his flyover over the hills to Cadiz."

OUCH

Ding—What kind of doc is Jones? Ling—I thought he was an eye doctor till I got his bill; then I found he was a skin specialist.

"SO MARVELOUS IN ITS ACTION"

Toledo Lady Never Expected to be Well of Her Stomach Trouble

NOW PRAISES PLANT JUICE

The Plant Juice Man is now in Lima at Hunter's drug store, 49 Public Square, where he is explaining his new herbal remedy, Plant Juice, to the public. He has been operating practically the entire United States.

MRS. EMILY BOLDEN

Introducing his medicine in many cities. While in Toledo, Ohio, recently, The Plant Juice Man received the following surprising testimonial which clearly shows the unusual power of this herbal remedy in cases of stomach trouble. The testimonial was given by Mrs. Emily Bolden, of 214 Champlain street, Toledo, who said:

"I suffered for five years from stomach and bowel trouble and my condition got so bad at times that I lost all hope of ever getting well and I had terrible pains in my back. I could not eat any solid food and often even the light foods I ate would not stay on my stomach."

"I saw a friend who had taken Plant Juice and she told me so much about it that I was induced to give this remedy a trial and I can say that since taking Plant Juice my stomach has improved so much that I am able to eat anything I care for because my suffering is all gone. My bowels are in good condition; I sleep soundly and really feel years younger and can recommend Plant Juice to anybody who suffers from stomach or bowel trouble because it is just marvelous in its action."

In cases of indigestion, constipation, pain and agony from gas and bloating, biliousness, heartburn and the many other complications of a disordered stomach this new herbal remedy, Plant Juice, seems to act like magic.

Plant Juice Man is at Hunter's drug store, 49 Public Square, Lima, where he is daily meeting the local public and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy. Free samples given.

Plant Juice is also sold in Lima at Hunter's drug store at Main and Wayne streets and at the Argonne drug store, opposite Post Office.

Combing Won't Rid Hair Of Dandruff

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Do this tonight, and by morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.
